Wing Fling Fun!

We are devoting this newsletter to letting you know how much fun we had at the Georgia Wing Fling in Toccoa, GA.

Thursday night we had a combined talent show, costume contest and “we had a “Can You Still Wear Your Military Uniform” contest. We had a winner for the uniform! Dick Hopkins of Chapter A.

Chapter A won 1st place in the group talent show, Chapter S won 2nd place. Carl and Kathy Hill, Florida District Couple of the Year, won the 1st place in the couple costume contest. Ken Thrasher won 1st in the individual category.

Friday night “Elvis” provided us with some awesome entertainment!

All went well with the COY baskets, tickets, bingo and games! We gave away lots of nice prizes to support Rider Ed, Motorist Awareness, and Membership Enhancement.

You had to be there to appreciate the canoe race on Lake Louise with Shirley of Chapter B2 “dog paddling”. We also had a model boat race on the lake as well. The Chapters loved it!

The Conference Center provided us with scrumptious meals 3 times a day and ice cream in 16 flavors was available in the snack shop most nights.

We offered 15 different training activities, including Active Shooter by Homeland Security, a Survivor Course by Jeremy Castleberry, Stop the Bleed by Vance and Fern Oakes, as well as many GWRRA courses.

In the evening, nobody watched TV in their rooms. There was Scrabble, Mexican Train, Uno and other games. Also, all 12 season tapes were running M.A.S.H in the lobby each day. Best of all, there was lots of comradery and friendship going on! Please join us next year! You missed a great time if you were not there! Enjoy the pictures! More to come.
